

ED YOUNG

BIOGRAPHY

Ed had dedicated his life to helping others. His service to the community started early in his career as a member of the US Navy, after which he went on to become a successful executive at Fortune 500 Companies, where he was active in corporate philanthropy as well as volunteering in his community as a Paramedic and Firefighter.

Ed's passion for servant leadership eventually led to his retirement from the corporate world, creating time to dedicate himself to humanitarian and crisis relief. He currently leverages his wide-ranging experience from the military, top tier universities, the FDNY and Homeland Security to provide medical care and instruction to those impacted by natural disasters, war and other crisis. When not traveling the world helping those in need, he continues to volunteer in his.
